Week 6 – Questions

Memory systems (types)

1. What are the different types of memories (systems) that have been proposed by researchers? How do they differ from each other and how do they work together?

2. What is working memory in general and how is it supposed to work?

3. What are some of the ways in which memory affects language?

4. How is word learning seen from the perspective of memory?